THE WEEK AHEAD

Last week's market kick was extended with most descriptions moving higher this week. Young heifers lifted by up to 50c per kg, or from about $100-$150 per head. Steers moved higher by similar values with feeder buyers also getting into the game. Feeder quotes this week have lifted by 20c or $80 per head on a 400kg beast. Where could the market go if could get a proper break, not just storm rains, welcome as they are? Restockers were also back in the market and looking to compete strongly on younger cattle, which have been very unfashionable of late.
